

WELCOME

Welcome to the Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska Association, Inc. Pageant. The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant Committee, (hereafter referred to as the Pageant Committee), strives to provide a rewarding and memorable experience. If you should have any questions or concerns, please contact Eva Oliver, contestant contact. As a contestant in this program, you will need to read and understand the Pageant Rules and Contract. These documents may be found in this booklet and/or on our website, missrodeonebraska.com. Thank you for becoming a part of this valuable program!

WHO IS MISS TEEN RODEO NEBRASKA?

Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska is a young lady who strives to promote the state of Nebraska and the sport of professional rodeo, and in so doing, promotes the great western way of life. Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska is a talented, personable horsewoman with a vast knowledge of the sport of rodeo, the equine industry and the state of Nebraska. She is a young lady who enjoys travel and who has a sincere interest in garnering educational experiences, which will assist in building a solid foundation for her future.

HISTORY OF THE MISS RODEO NEBRASKA PAGEANT

The concept of Miss Rodeo America was developed in 1955 by a group of gentlemen under the name International Rodeo Management. The same year, the first Miss Rodeo Nebraska, Dallas (Hunt) George of Lincoln, was crowned in Burwell. Dallas won the regional title in Omaha at the Ak-Sar-Ben Rodeo in 1956 and went on to compete and win the Miss Rodeo America title in 1957. In 2014, Dallas was inducted into the Miss Rodeo America Hall of Fame.

In 1957, Laura “Lolly” (Cameron) Klug won the title of Miss Rodeo Nebraska, as well as the regional title at Ak-Sar-Ben, and further competed at Miss Rodeo America. In 1959, Lolly was selected Buffalo Bill Rodeo Queen and given the title of Miss Rodeo Northwest. She then competed a second time at Miss Rodeo America where she was selected second runner-up. In 2015, Lolly was inducted into the Miss Rodeo America Hall of Fame.

In 1991, after 36 years of the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant being held in Burwell, the pageant was moved to Nebraska’s official state celebration, NEBRASKAland DAYS and the Buffalo Bill PRCA Rodeo in North Platte. In addition, NEBRASKAland DAYS began presenting a $1,000 scholarship each year to the young woman chosen as Miss Rodeo Nebraska. The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Scholarship Program has continued to grow and at this time is able to award over $16,000 in scholarships and tuition.

HOUSING

Contestants will be lodged at the Mid Plains Community College student housing during the Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska Pageant. Rooms and meals will be furnished. Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska 2023 will also stay at the college with one female family member 21 years of age or older, or a family member approved by the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant chairperson. No lodging or meals will be furnished for contestant family members.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Possession of and use of all electronic devices (i.e., cell phones, computers, Apple Watches, Fit Bits, iPads, tablets, etc.) by contestants during competition is prohibited.

CHAPERONES

Contestants will be under the supervision of the Pageant Committee chaperones from the time they arrive until after coronation. The chaperones will escort the contestants to and from all functions during the pageant.

PARENTS AND RELATIVES

The Pageant Committee welcomes and encourages the presence of parents, relatives and friends of the contestants. A parent or guardian is required to attend orientation with the contestant. Once the pageant begins, no one will be permitted to fraternize with or "coach" the contestants. Any form of coaching will result in disqualification of the contestant. Contestants cannot communicate with family or friends during the pageant unless authorized by their chaperones or the Pageant Committee. Social time with the contestants will be designated on the public schedule.

GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

The Pageant's Grievance Committee during the Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska Pageant will be comprised of three members: The National Director, the Pageant Chairperson and one Miss Rodeo Nebraska contestant parent selected at orientation. These grievance committee members will be available at all times during the pageant. The National Director will be the contact and spokesperson for the committee. The National Director and/or the Pageant Chairperson will attend all functions of the pageant.

Any grievance must be filed by a contestant, to be a valid grievance. No grievance from parents, guardians, trainers, family or third party will be acknowledged. The grievance must be: handwritten, signed and delivered to the National Director, and filed within three hours of the event being protested. Any grievance must address a single event.

When the National Director receives the grievance, the Grievance Committee will meet to review the grievance. The Grievance Committee will then make a decision whether to act upon, reject or disregard the grievance.

- The Grievance Committee and contestant with a concern will not discuss the grievance with anyone, including parents, other contestants, judges, etc.
- The Grievance Committee will interview all parties involved.
- The Grievance Committee must come to a majority decision.
- The pageant will continue as scheduled until decisions have been made.
- No grievances may be based solely on the scoring by judges.
- The Grievance Committee must make a decision based on facts. They must be certain, without a doubt, that the misconduct or misrepresentation by the implicated was intentional or that there was an infraction of a rule.
- If the committee feels the grievance needs to be acted upon, they will take the complaint to the Executive Board and/or the head judge of the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant.
- The Executive Board's decision is final.

TRANSPORTATION

The Pageant Committee will provide all transportation for contestants as needed for contestant functions. Transportation for contestant parents will not be furnished.

HORSES

As a Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska contestant, you will ride your own horse for Round 1 of the horsemanship competition. Absolutely NO STUDS ALLOWED IN COMPETITION. For Round 2 of horsemanship, you will ride one of the other contestant's horses. Horses must be at the Wild West Arena prior to the Sunday morning horsemanship competition.

Contestants must arrange for someone else to transport and care for their horse(s) as the contestants will not be given time to feed, exercise or attend to the general care of their horses during the course of the contest.

The newly crowned Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska 2024 must also have her horse available at the Wednesday evening performance of the Buffalo Bill Rodeo grand entry and Miss Rodeo Nebraska Coronation. She will be introduced and will make a queen's run at that performance only.

Following the queen's run, she will be asked to remove her crown and banner and will not represent her new title as Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska until after the last performance of the Buffalo Bill Rodeo. However, the newly crowned Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska will be considered Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska Lady-in-Waiting until after the final performance of the Buffalo Bill Rodeo and all rules contained herein will apply.

Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska will ride her own horse in the NEBRASKAland DAYS parade the year of her full reign as MTRN. Example: The current Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska will ride her own horse in the parade – the Lady in Waiting will not be riding in the parade the year she earns the title.

AWARDS

Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska receives the following prizes: Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska saddle, buckle, banner pin, and banners. In addition, there will be an MRNA educational scholarship and a Mid Plains Community College two-year, full tuition scholarship (according to guidelines). First runner-up and category winners will also receive awards. You will receive documents with instructions and deadlines for requesting scholarship monies from the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association Scholarship Chairperson.

WRITTEN TEST

Contestants will be required to take a written test consisting of questions relating to the sport of rodeo, equine knowledge, current events, Pageant Rules and Contract, etc. The written test score will count toward the contestant's total score.

MISS CONGENIALITY

All contestants will vote for Miss Congeniality during the pageant.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The posts on any social media platform should always reflect exemplary conduct. Contestants should always conduct themselves accordingly through words and photos. Any negative or harmful displays on social media will be addressed by the Executive Board and could result in removal of the crown.

MISS TEEN RODEO NEBRASKA PAGEANT JUDGING GUIDELINES

Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska is judged in three categories: horsemanship, personality and appearance. In addition, the scores from the contestant's speech, interview(s), extemporaneous question(s), style show presentations, written test, etc. are included.

JUDGES

- a. All decisions of the judges are final.
- b. Three judges will judge all categories of the pageant. Scores will be totaled for each contestant each time they are judged. A head judge will be appointed.
- c. Judges are selected for their expertise in all fields of the competition. They have an awareness of correct western dress, they are knowledgeable about the sport of professional rodeo, and they are experienced, western-type horsemen and horsewomen who are accustomed to judging these events.
- d. The Pageant Committee will institute appropriate standards for judges to ensure that all judges are impartial. The Pageant Committee will have the final decision on the selection of judges for the Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska Pageant.
- e. In the event of a dispute concerning the decision of the judges, such dispute shall be settled by the National Director, Pageant Chairperson and the Association's President. Review of the dispute shall be limited to determining if the judges acted in good faith, impartially and in accordance with the applicable rules. If any judge is found to have acted in violation of these rules, the National Director, the Pageant Chairperson and the Association's President, at their discretion, may remove such judge and may take any remedial action they deem appropriate. All decisions of the National Director, the Pageant Chairperson, and the Association's President are final.

- f. Ties for category winners will be broken by referring back to the head judge. The head judge's score will break the tie. If a tie still remains, judge number 2's score will be used and so forth.
- g. A tie in the overall score for Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska shall be broken by using the highest overall horsemanship score.
- h. In the event there is only one Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska contestant:
  - 1. The contestant must achieve a score of 75% or greater of the average score of the last three years' contestants to win in any category
  - 2. The contestant must achieve a score of 75% or greater of the average score of the last three years' title winners to attain the title of MTRN.
  - 3. If the winner of each category achieves the 75% or greater score of the average score of the last three years' contestants, she will receive the full scholarship normally awarded in that category, but will NOT be entitled to any Runner-up scholarships or the Rising Star Award.
- i. Judges will be asked to spend as much time with each contestant as possible without showing favoritism. This will include informal talks with them during meals and various events.
- j. Following the coronation, all official judges' score sheets will be delivered to the National Director.

JUDGED EVENTS

1. HORSEMANSHIP

- a. Horsemanship. Control of the horse and the way any situation is handled.
- b. Balance. The ability to sit a saddle, position of hands, feet and seat.
- c. Mounting and dismounting.
- d. Care of the horse and saddling procedures. Questions may be asked.
- e. The understanding and skill of the contestant will be judged, not the horse or the equipment.
- f. There will be two go-rounds of horsemanship competition. Each contestant is required to ride her own horse for the first go-round. The morning of horsemanship, the judges will determine which pattern, (#1 or #2 below), will be completed during round one of the competition. There will be a blind draw for the order of competition and the second go-round horse. She will be scored on her appearance and the personality she projects during both horsemanship patterns.
- g. Dress for the horsemanship contest will be: A western, long-sleeved shirt which may be colored and/or tailored, but no embellishments of any kind, western blue jeans, belt, boots and a hat. No vests, jackets or chaps. Gloves are not required. Spurs are not allowed. All attire should be neat and fit properly. Sponsor consideration is appreciated. Wrangler is the national sponsor of the Miss Rodeo America horsemanship contest.
- h. Showmanship should be considered since your personality does project from horseback to the audience and judges.
- i. Rain gear is appropriate if needed.
- j. Equine boots are allowed.
- k. Stallions are not allowed.
- l. Use of hackamores/mechanical hackamores, gag bits or martingales will not be allowed.

- m. No one, including coaches, family or friends of the contestant, will be allowed in the arena prior to or during the horsemanship competition. If it is discovered that someone associated with a contestant has been in the arena, or in any way coached a contestant, the contestant will be disqualified. This will be strictly enforced.
- n. Only one horse can be used by one contestant during the horsemanship competition.
- o. No member of the Executive Board, Pageant Committee, nor their immediate family shall loan a horse to any contestant for the horsemanship competition of the pageant.

The winner of the Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska horsemanship category will be the contestant with the highest cumulative points received in the two horsemanship rounds and the Horsemanship Interview. Refer to the Scoring Matrix for details.

Any questions related to the horsemanship competition should be directed to Michelle (Boeshart) Whitson (580) 374-7838.

HORSEMANSHIP PATTERNS ROUND ONE

HORSEMANSHIP PATTERN #1:

1. Do an extended jog alongside of the arena, then to center.
2. Begin loping at the center of the arena and lope left circle on the left lead.
3. A flying lead change at the center of the arena and lope right circle on the right lead.
4. A flying lead change at center of the arena and continue loping around the end of the arena.
5. Once on the straight, increase speed and continue around the end of the arena.
6. Stop and back.
7. Ride forward to the judges and dismount. Present yourself to the judges for questions. When you are dismissed by the judges, mount and trot to the gate and stop.
8. Do the presentation run (queen salute) using the entire arena. Stop at the gate and exit the arena.

HORSEMANSHIP ROUND ONE, PATTERN #2:*HORSEMANSHIP PATTERN #2:

1. Circle the arena, on the left lead, at an extended lope.
2. Guide left and lope down the center of the arena with moderate speed.
3. Pass the center of the arena, stop, and back to the center.
4. Execute a  $\frac{3}{4}$  turn to the right and lope a circle to the right, with moderate speed.
5. Complete a flying lead change, and lope a circle to the left, with moderate speed. After completing the circle, continue loping on the left lead toward the end of the arena.
6. Stop and pause to show completion of the pattern.
7. Ride forward to the judges and dismount. Present yourself to the judges for questions. When the judges dismiss you, mount, and trot to the gate and stop.
8. Do a presentation run (queen salute) using the entire arena. Stop at the gate and exit the arena.

The Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska Pageant judges reserve the right to make alterations and/or additions to this pattern.

HORSEMANSHIP ROUND TWO

ROUND 2: For the second round, the contestants will show their equitation and arena presence. The contestant's overall poise, confidence, appearance, and position throughout will be evaluated. Position is meant to refer to the contestant's body position while riding and how the contestant presents themselves during the round. The Round Two time limit is 2 minutes (120 seconds).

The contestants will be required to complete a series of five elements in the following order:

1. Large, fast circle
2. Small, slow circle
3. Stop
4. Back up one-horse length
5. Presentation run

Contestant must perform the five elements in the listed order.

How and where the contestant transitions from one element to another is her choice.

The judges determine how they will address rides that exceed the 2 minute timeframe.

The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant judges reserve the right to make alterations and/or additions to this pattern.

2. PERSONALITY

- a. Intelligence. Good common sense.
- b. Education. Conversational ability in rodeo and other areas, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation.
- c. Charisma. Radiates self-confidence, charm and is genuine without making an issue of it, shows maturity, high moral standards, sincerity and integrity.
- d. Personality Reflections. Style of attire, overall appearance, magnetism and eye appeal.
- e. A genuine interest in other people, in the Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska Pageant and in rodeo with a noticeable consideration of others.
- f. Self-Projection. The ability to project one's personality, whether it is from horseback, in an arena, on television or before an audience. Also considered are a sense of humor, showmanship, ambition, desire and enthusiasm.
- g. Happy outlook on life.
- h. Promptness in keeping pageant schedule.
- i. Public Appearances. Contestant's ability to speak to an audience with facts and interesting information. Contestants will answer extemporaneous questions, which will require the contestant to think on her feet and to show maturity, intelligence, wisdom and imagination.
- j. Judges will have a résumé containing a brief list of hobbies and other activities of each contestant. The judges may ask you questions pertinent to your résumé.
- k. Personality scores will be accumulated not only from the personality interviews but also from the other areas of competition, such as horsemanship, social media interviews, horsemanship interview, style show modeling, group interview, speech and impromptu questions.
- l. The winner of the personality category will have the highest cumulative total of personality scores received in all judged events.

3. APPEARANCE

- a. Attractiveness.
- b. Grooming. Includes neatness and cleanliness in every detail, such as complexion, hands, fingernails, hair and clothing. Meticulous care in general grooming is essential for a lady to be considered for Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska.
- c. Poise and Posture. Ladylike behavior in EVERY situation.
- d. Knowledge of Proper Western Attire. Contestants should be aware of what is fashionable and appropriate in western dress, with particular attention given to color coordination. Judges will be looking for versatility and imagination. They will be observing how a contestant's clothes fit and suit her personality, including the length of her pants, shirts and jackets and the crease and shape of her hat. No fashion boots will be allowed. (Roper style is accepted on the state level). Cleavage must be covered, bras are required and long sleeves are preferred. It is not necessary to invest in an excessive amount of expensive clothing. Contestants may be questioned on their familiarity of western wear.
- e. Appearance scores will be accumulated throughout all areas of competition including horsemanship, all interviews, style show modeling and speech. The winner of the appearance category will have the highest cumulative total of appearance scores received in all judged events.

4. SPEECH

- a. Each contestant will give a two-minute speech about "Dare to be a Cowgirl".
- b. Notes are discouraged and no props will be allowed.

- c. Contestants are judged on the content, correct grammar usage, delivery, introduction, conclusion, and quality of voice.
- d. The judges may deduct points for going over or under the two-minute time limit.
- e. The speech score will be added in the total points for the contest.
- f. Each contestant will do an impromptu commercial for one of the live auction items. Contestants will do a blind draw for the item, have 1 min to prepare and then present a 30 second commercial about the item and the business sponsor. The commercial score will then be added in the total points for Speech score.

5. INTERVIEWS

- a. Personal and Horsemanship interviews will be 12 minutes in length.
- b. Each contestant will be interviewed individually and privately by the judges and may be interviewed on many categories.
- c. Judges' questions will test the contestant's knowledge of the pageant, professional rodeo, horsemanship and current affairs. Other interview topics could include knowledge of tack, horse care, feeding, diseases, anatomy, knowledge of pro rodeo, its history, terminology, organization, championship standings, standard events and what's current in the pro rodeo world. Excellent sources of information are the Pro Rodeo Sports News, the Official PRCA Rulebook, the PRCA website and the official Pro Rodeo Media Guide, all of which are available from the PRCA office, 101 Pro Rodeo Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80919.
- d. During the individual interviews, answers should be in-depth so that the judges may determine the character and knowledge of each contestant.
- e. Refer to the scoring matrix for maximum points assigned to each category.

6. EXTEMPORANEOUS QUESTIONS

- a. Extemporaneous questions will be asked of each contestant during various pageant functions.
- b. These scores will become part of the overall personality score.
- c. Questions may relate to the sport of professional rodeo, current events and/or a personality-type question.

7. PHOTOGENIC

- a. A photography event will take place at the pageant, which will carry a score of 40 points. These points will count toward the total score.

** The winner of each category of competition will be announced at coronation.

AUDITORS

At the end of each round, each judge will place their score sheets in a manila envelope, seal it and sign his or her name across the flap. The judges will then turn their envelopes in to the National Director or the Pageant Chairperson. This person will deliver the sealed envelopes to the auditor, who will then compile the scores in private.

When the judging has been completed, the auditor will determine which contestant has scored the highest in each division. The highest grand total score will be Miss Teen Rodeo Nebraska. Second highest total will be first runner-up.

The original judges' score sheets, along with a notarized tally sheet, will be officially filed with the National Director. Score sheets with comments only (no points) will be sent to individual contestants upon the contestant's request following the pageant. Requests must be made within 30 days following the pageant.
