

WELCOME

Welcome to the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association, Inc. Pageant. The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant Committee, (hereafter referred to as the Pageant Committee), strives to provide a rewarding and memorable experience. If you should have any questions or concerns, please contact Eva Oliver, contestant contact. As a contestant in this program, you will need to read and understand the Pageant Rules and Contract. These documents may be found in this booklet and/or on our website, missrodonebraska.com. Thank you for becoming a part of this valuable program!

WHO IS MISS RODEO NEBRASKA?

Miss Rodeo Nebraska is a young lady who strives to promote the state of Nebraska and the sport of professional rodeo, and in so doing, promotes the great western way of life. Miss Rodeo Nebraska is a talented, personable horsewoman with a vast knowledge of the sport of rodeo, the equine industry and the state of Nebraska. She is a young lady who enjoys travel and who has a sincere interest in garnering educational experiences, which will assist in building a solid foundation for her future.

HISTORY OF THE MISS RODEO NEBRASKA PAGEANT

The concept of Miss Rodeo America was developed in 1955 by a group of gentlemen under the name International Rodeo Management. The same year, the first Miss Rodeo Nebraska, Dallas (Hunt) George of Lincoln, was crowned in Burwell. Dallas won the regional title in Omaha at the Ak-Sar-Ben Rodeo in 1956 and went on to compete and win the Miss Rodeo America title in 1957. In 2014, Dallas was inducted into the Miss Rodeo America Hall of Fame.

In 1957, Laura “Lolly” (Cameron) Klug won the title of Miss Rodeo Nebraska, as well as the regional title at Ak-Sar-Ben, and further competed at Miss Rodeo America. In 1959, Lolly was selected Buffalo Bill Rodeo Queen and given the title of Miss Rodeo Northwest. She then competed a second time at Miss Rodeo America where she was selected second runner-up. In 2015, Lolly was inducted into the Miss Rodeo America Hall of Fame.

In 1991, after 36 years of the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant being held in Burwell, the pageant was moved to Nebraska’s official state celebration, NEBRASKAland DAYS and the Buffalo Bill PRCA Rodeo in North Platte. In addition, NEBRASKAland DAYS began presenting a $1,000 scholarship each year to the young woman chosen as Miss Rodeo Nebraska. The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Scholarship Program has continued to grow and at this time is able to award over $16,000 in scholarships and tuition.

Upon request, I will provide a copy of a government issued identification (such as a birth certificate, driver's license, passport, etc.) verifying my age.

2. Contestant must be a citizen of the United States of America and one of the following:

a. A legal resident of the state of Nebraska for at least six (6) months prior to the entry closing date for the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant. Legal residency shall be determined by one of the following:

- ~ a valid driver's license issued by the state of Nebraska and/or
- ~ a voter's registration card.

Proof of residency must be provided with the pageant entry

OR

b. Completed at least one full semester at a Nebraska post-secondary educational institution.

- ~ must be a student in good standing within the state of Nebraska
- ~ must be currently enrolled as a full-time student (12 hours or more)

Proof will be evidenced by official registration, transcripts or other documentation from the appropriate educational institution and must be provided with the pageant entry

OR

c. Be currently employed full time by a Nebraska business and have been employed for a minimum of 6 months immediately prior to the entry closing date. Proof will be official documentation from the contestant's employer as accepted by the MRNA Executive Board (hereafter referred to as the Executive Board). Proof must be provided with the pageant entry

3. If contestant is chosen as Miss Rodeo Nebraska, she must reside in the State of Nebraska during the complete year of her reign.

4. Contestant shall not be a previous Miss Rodeo Nebraska or held the title of Miss Rodeo in any other state, nor shall she have previously competed in the Miss Rodeo America Pageant.

5. Contestant must have obtained a high school diploma or equivalent of a high school education.

6. Contestant certifies that she is not currently married, has never been married, and has never entered into a marriage contract that has been annulled.

7. Contestant certifies that she is not a parent, foster parent or guardian of any child and that she is not now pregnant. If she should become pregnant during her year of reign, she will forfeit all prizes and monies received from the pageant and her title will go to the first runner-up.

8. The winner of the pageant agrees to not marry during the year of her reign. If she should marry, she will forfeit all prizes and monies received from the pageant and during her reign as Miss Rodeo Nebraska and her title will go to the first runner-up.
9. Contestant certifies she is in good health and does not have any health concerns, which would prevent full participation in this contest or from serving as Miss Rodeo Nebraska if selected.
10. Contestant certifies she does not use illegal or controlled substances, other than prescription medications and then only in the manner prescribed. Contestant certifies she does not abuse alcohol or other dangerous substances.

(hereafter referred to as the Pageant Committee and the Association respectively) to verify any and all information contained on her application and attests that the information she has provided is true.
15. Contestant is subject to a public records search prior to her application being accepted by the Pageant Committee. This could include an internet search, a social media search and a background check, if deemed necessary.
16. Contestant agrees to abide by pageant rules. Should circumstances occur that a contestant is conducting herself in an improper manner, a meeting of the Executive Board will be held and proper measures will be taken, with the most severe being disqualification for infractions.
17. The Pageant Committee feels it is the duty and obligation of anyone in a competition of this status to portray the highest of moral and ethical standards, show the true ideals of young womanhood and set an example above reproach.
18. Contestant will be expected to conduct herself as a positive example to the public, which includes no smoking, vaping, drinking, chewing, foul language, or inappropriate social behavior. No visible tattoos.
19. Contestant certifies she has not engaged in any act, which if made public, would be likely to cause harm or damage to contestant's reputation or to the goodwill and reputation of the Association including any and all social networking sites and/or any internet sites. If contestant has any concerns about the applicability of this provision, contestant acknowledges she has been advised to discuss this with at least two representatives of the Executive Board prior to signing this form. Meeting will be documented in writing.
20. Any decision by the Executive Board to prohibit an applicant from participating in the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant competition is final and completely at the Executive Board's discretion. A denial letter will be sent by April 30.

21. If a contestant holds a title when competing for the title of Miss Rodeo Nebraska, the following requirements must be met: It is the contestant's responsibility to contact the committee of whom she holds the crown and obtain a letter of approval from that committee to compete in the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant. This letter is due on April 15, the contest deadline. If the contestant should win the title of Miss Rodeo Nebraska, she will represent the title of Miss Rodeo Nebraska Lady-in-Waiting in all state appearances with the exception of that previous title's rodeo. The newly crowned Miss Rodeo Nebraska Lady-in-Waiting will have until November 1 of the same year to finish the reign of her previous title. All decisions are made at the discretion of the Executive Board.

22. Contestant shall not have previously had her Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant application denied, have been disqualified or had the title of Miss Rodeo Nebraska forfeited in the past.

23. Once application deadline has passed, and applications have been reviewed and approved, the contestant contact, Eva Oliver will be reaching out to you. She will set up a process for you to contact her with any questions you may have about the pageant.

HOUSING

Contestants will be lodged at the Miss Rodeo Nebraska host hotel during the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant, and meals will be furnished. No lodging will be furnished for contestant family members.

Following the awards presentation, contestants will be dismissed, and the newly crowned Miss Rodeo Nebraska Lady-in-Waiting will be taken back to the host hotel with her parents. She and her parents will be furnished one room for the night. The following morning, Miss Rodeo Nebraska Lady-in-Waiting will have her first official photograph taken. She will sign the Miss Rodeo Nebraska contract in the presence of, and along with, the Miss Rodeo Nebraska National Director (hereafter referred to as the National Director) and the Association's President. At the conclusion of this meeting, Miss Rodeo Nebraska Lady-in-Waiting will be released to go home.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Possession of and use of all electronic devices (i.e., cell phones, computers, Apple Watches, Fit Bits, iPads, tablets, etc.) by contestants during competition is prohibited.

CHAPERONES

Contestants will be under the supervision of the Pageant Committee chaperones from the time they arrive until after coronation. The chaperones will escort the contestants to and from all functions during the pageant.

PARENTS AND RELATIVES

The Pageant Committee welcomes and encourages the presence of parents, relatives and friends of the contestants. A parent or guardian is required to attend orientation with the contestant. Once the pageant begins, no one will be permitted to fraternize with or "coach" the contestants. Any form of coaching will result in disqualification of the contestant. Contestants cannot communicate with family or friends during the pageant unless authorized by their chaperones or the Pageant Committee. Social time with the contestants will be designated on the public schedule.

GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

The Pageant's Grievance Committee during the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant will be comprised of three members: The National Director, the Pageant Chairperson and one Miss Rodeo Nebraska contestant parent selected at orientation. These grievance committee members will be available at all times during the pageant. The National Director will be the contact and spokesperson for the committee. The National Director and/or the Pageant Chairperson will attend all functions of the pageant.

Any grievance must be filed by a contestant, to be a valid grievance. No grievance from parents, guardians, trainers, family or third party will be acknowledged. The grievance must be: handwritten, signed and delivered to the National Director, and filed within three hours of the event being protested. Any grievance must address a single event.

When the National Director receives the grievance, the Grievance Committee will meet to review the grievance. The Grievance Committee will then make a decision whether to act upon, reject or disregard the grievance.

- The Grievance Committee and contestant with a concern will not discuss the grievance with anyone, including parents, other contestants, judges, etc.
- The Grievance Committee will interview all parties involved.
- The Grievance Committee must come to a majority decision.
- The pageant will continue as scheduled until decisions have been made.
- No grievances may be based solely on the scoring by judges.
- The Grievance Committee must make a decision based on facts. They must be certain, without a doubt, that the misconduct or misrepresentation by the implicated was intentional or that there was an infraction of a rule.
- If the committee feels the grievance needs to be acted upon, they will take the complaint to the Executive Board and/or the head judge of the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant.
- The Executive Board's decision is final.

TRANSPORTATION

The Pageant Committee will provide all transportation for contestants as needed for contestant functions. Transportation for contestant parents will not be furnished.

HORSES

Horses will be provided for the horsemanship competition only. As a contestant, you will bring your own horse for coronation. Horses must be at the Wild West Arena prior to the Wednesday evening performance of the Buffalo Bill Rodeo grand entry and Miss Rodeo Nebraska Coronation. A family member is to meet the contestant as she exits the arena following coronation to take her horse.

As Miss Rodeo Nebraska, you will need to provide your own horse for the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant, all Buffalo Bill Rodeo performances, and the NEBRASKAland Days parade the year of your reign. You will need a family member or friend to assist with the feeding, care, and transporting of your horse to and from events during the week, as you will not have time to do so.

AWARDS

The contestant with the highest score in horsemanship, personality and appearance will receive an award for that category. Other major awards include photogenic, speech and written test.

Following coronation, the Pageant Committee members will escort ALL contestants to the Wild West Pavilion to receive their awards. If any contestant fails to attend, they will forfeit all gifts, awards and scholarships. Sponsor pictures will be taken at this time as well.

Miss Rodeo Nebraska receives the following prizes: An engraved trophy saddle, $1,000 scholarship from NEBRASKAland DAYS, Inc., a two-year full tuition scholarship from Mid-Plains Community College, and a scholarship from the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Scholarship Fund, a buckle, a perpetual crown, entry fee to the Miss Rodeo America Pageant, money toward travel expenses, and numerous other items.

First runner-up will receive a scholarship and various gifts. Category and award winners will receive scholarships and awards. All contestants receive souvenirs and various gifts representative of the pageant.

You will receive documents with instructions and deadlines for requesting scholarship monies from the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Association Scholarship Chairperson.

WRITTEN TEST

Contestants will be required to take a written test consisting of questions relating to the sport of rodeo, equine knowledge, current events, Pageant Rules and Contract, etc. The written test score will count toward the contestant's total score.

MISS CONGENIALITY

All contestants will vote for Miss Congeniality during the pageant.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The posts on any social media platform should always reflect exemplary conduct. Contestants should always conduct themselves accordingly through words and photos. Any negative or harmful displays on social media will be addressed by the Executive Board and could result in removal of the crown.

MISS RODEO NEBRASKA PAGEANT JUDGING GUIDELINES

Miss Rodeo Nebraska is judged in three categories: Horsemanship, Personality and Appearance. In addition, the scores from the contestant's Speech, Interview(s), Extemporaneous question(s), Style Show presentations, Written Test, etc. are included.

JUDGES

- a. All decisions of the judges are final.
- b. Three judges will judge all categories of the pageant. Scores will be totaled for each contestant each time they are judged. A head judge will be appointed.
- c. Judges are selected for their expertise in all fields of the competition. They have an awareness of correct western dress, they are knowledgeable about the sport of professional rodeo, and they are experienced, western-type horsemen and horsewomen who are accustomed to judging these events.
- d. The Pageant Committee will institute appropriate standards for judges to ensure that all judges are impartial. The Pageant Committee will have the final decision on the selection of judges for the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant.
- e. In the event of a dispute concerning the decision of the judges, such dispute shall be settled by the National Director, Pageant Chairperson and the Association's President. Review of the dispute shall be limited to determining if the judges acted in good faith, impartially and in accordance with the applicable rules. If any judge is found to have acted in violation of these rules, the National Director, the Pageant Chairperson and the Association's President, at their discretion, may remove such judge and may take any remedial action they deem appropriate. All decisions of the National Director, the Pageant Chairperson, and the Association's President are final.
- f. Ties for category winners will be broken by referring back to the head judge. The head judge's score will break the tie. If a tie still remains, judge number 2's score will be used and so forth.
- g. A tie in the overall score for Miss Rodeo Nebraska shall be broken by using the highest overall horsemanship score.
- h. In the event there is only one Miss Rodeo Nebraska contestant:
 1. The contestant must achieve a score of 75% or greater of the average score of the last three years' contestants to win in any category
 2. The contestant must achieve a score of 75% or greater of the average score of the last three years' title winners to attain the title of MRN.
 3. If the winner of each category achieves the 75% or greater score of the average score of the last three years' contestants, she will receive the full scholarship normally awarded in that category, but will NOT be entitled to any Runner-up scholarships or the Rising Star Award.
- i. Judges will be asked to spend as much time with each contestant as possible without showing favoritism. This will include informal talks with them during meals and various events.
- j. Following the coronation, all official judges' score sheets will be delivered to the National Director.

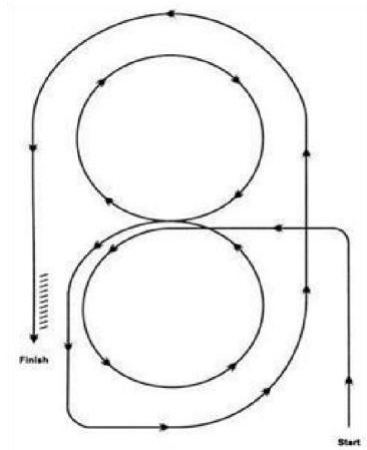

JUDGED EVENTS

1. HORSEMANSHIP

- a. Horsemanship. Control of the horse and the way any situation is handled.
- b. Balance. The ability to sit a saddle, position of hands, feet and seat.
- c. Mounting and dismounting.
- d. Care of the horse and saddling procedures. Questions may be asked.
- e. The understanding and skill of the contestant will be judged, not the horse or the equipment.
- f. Each contestant is required to ride the horses provided by the pageant committee. There will be two go-rounds of horsemanship competition. As in rodeo, there will be a blind draw for contestants' order of competition and a blind draw for each contestant's mount for each round. No contestant will ride the same horse in both go-rounds. The morning of horsemanship, the judges will determine which pattern, (#1 or #2 below), will be completed during round one of the competition. Contestant will be scored on her appearance and the personality she projects during both horsemanship patterns.
- g. Dress for the horsemanship contest will be: A western, long-sleeved shirt which may be colored and/or tailored with or without embellishments (embroidery, crystals, zipper front or back, cuffs and scarves), western jeans, which may be colored or blue jeans, belt, boots and a hat. No vests, jackets or chaps. Gloves are not required. Spurs are not allowed. All attire should be neat and fit properly. Sponsor consideration is appreciated. Wrangler is the national sponsor of the Miss Rodeo America horsemanship contest.
- h. Showmanship should be considered since your personality does project from horseback to the audience and judges.
- i. Rain gear is appropriate if needed.
- j. No one, including coaches, family or friends of the contestant, will be allowed in the arena prior to or during the horsemanship competition. If it is discovered that someone associated with a contestant has been in the arena, or in any way coached a contestant, the contestant will be disqualified. This will be strictly enforced.

The winner of the Miss Rodeo Nebraska horsemanship category will be the contestant with the highest cumulative points received in the two horsemanship rounds and the Horsemanship Interview. Refer to the Scoring Matrix for details.

Any questions related to the horsemanship competition should be directed to Michelle (Boeshart) Whitson (580) 374-7838.

HORSEMANSHIP PATTERNS ROUND ONEHORSEMANSHIP PATTERN #1:

1. Do an extended jog alongside of the arena, then to center.
2. Begin loping at the center of the arena and lope left circle on the left lead.
3. A flying lead change at the center of the arena and lope right circle on the right lead.
4. A flying lead change at center of the arena and continue loping around the end of the arena.
5. Once on the straight, increase speed and continue around the end of the arena.
6. Stop and back.
7. Ride forward to the judges and dismount. Present yourself to the judges for questions. When you are dismissed by the judges, mount and trot to the gate and stop.
8. Do the presentation run (queen salute) using the entire arena. Stop at the gate and exit the arena.

The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant judges reserve the right to make alterations and/or additions to this pattern.

HORSEMANSHIP PATTERN #2:

HORSEMANSHIP ROUND ONE, PATTERN #2:

1. Circle the arena, on the left lead, at an extended lope.
2. Guide left and lope down the center of the arena with moderate speed.
3. Pass the center of the arena, stop, and back to the center.
4. Execute a $\frac{3}{4}$ turn to the right and lope a circle to the right, with moderate speed.
5. Complete a flying lead change, and lope a circle to the left, with moderate speed. After completing the circle, continue loping on the left lead toward the end of the arena.
6. Stop and pause to show completion of the pattern.
7. Ride forward to the judges and dismount. Present yourself to the judges for questions. When the judges dismiss you, mount, and trot to the gate and stop.
8. Do a presentation run (queen salute) using the entire arena. Stop at the gate and exit the arena.

The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant judges reserve the right to make alterations and/or additions to this pattern.

HORSEMANSHIP ROUND TWO

ROUND 2: For the second round, the contestants will show their equitation and arena presence. The contestant's overall poise, confidence, appearance, and position throughout will be evaluated. Position is meant to refer to the contestant's body position while riding and how the contestant presents themselves during the round. The Round Two time limit is 2 minutes (120 seconds).

The contestants will be required to complete a series of five elements in the following order:

1. Large, fast circle
2. Small, slow circle
3. Stop
4. Back up one-horse length
5. Presentation run

Contestant must perform the five elements in the listed order.

How and where the contestant transitions from one element to another is her choice.

The judges determine how they will address rides that exceed the 2 minute time frame.

The Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant judges reserve the right to make alterations and/or additions to this pattern.

2. PERSONALITY

- a. Intelligence. Good common sense.
- b. Education. Conversational ability in rodeo and other areas, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation.
- c. Charisma. Radiates self-confidence, charm and is genuine without making an issue of it, shows maturity, high moral standards, sincerity and integrity.

- d. Personality Reflections. Style of attire, overall appearance, magnetism and eye appeal.
- e. A genuine interest in other people, in the Miss Rodeo Nebraska Pageant and in rodeo with a noticeable consideration of others.
- f. Self-Projection. The ability to project one's personality, whether it is from horseback, in an arena, on television or before an audience. Also considered are a sense of humor, showmanship, ambition, desire and enthusiasm.
- g. Happy outlook on life.
- h. Promptness in keeping pageant schedule.
- i. Public Appearances. Contestant's ability to speak to an audience with facts and interesting information. Contestants will answer extemporaneous questions, which will require the contestant to think on her feet and to show maturity, intelligence, wisdom and imagination.
- j. Judges will have a résumé containing a brief list of hobbies and other activities of each contestant. The judges may ask you questions pertinent to your résumé.
- k. Personality scores will be accumulated not only from the personality interviews but also from the other areas of competition, such as horsemanship, social media interviews, horsemanship interview, style show modeling, group interview, speech and impromptu questions.
- l. The winner of the personality category will have the highest cumulative total of personality scores received in all judged events.

3. APPEARANCE

- a. Attractiveness.
- b. Grooming. Includes neatness and cleanliness in every detail, such as complexion, hands, fingernails, hair and clothing. Meticulous care in general grooming is essential for a lady to be considered for Miss Rodeo Nebraska.
- c. Poise and Posture. Ladylike behavior in EVERY situation.
- d. Knowledge of Proper Western Attire. Contestants should be aware of what is fashionable and appropriate in western dress, with particular attention given to color coordination. Judges will be looking for versatility and imagination. They will be observing how a contestant's clothes fit and suit her personality, including the length of her pants, shirts and jackets and the crease and shape of her hat. No fashion boots will be allowed. (Roper style is accepted on the state level). Cleavage must be covered, bras are required and long sleeves are preferred. It is not necessary to invest in an excessive amount of expensive clothing. Contestants may be questioned on their familiarity of western wear.
- e. Appearance scores will be accumulated throughout all areas of competition including horsemanship, all interviews, style show modeling and speech. The winner of the appearance category will have the highest cumulative total of appearance scores received in all judged events.

4. SPEECH

- a. Extemporaneous Speech
Each contestant will choose from topics provided by MRNA. There will be 10 minutes for each contestant to prepare a 1 ½ minute speech.

- b. Judging is based on the content, correct grammar usage, delivery, relevancy to the topic, poise, professionalism and allotted time for the presentation.
- c. The judges may deduct points for going over or under the 1½ minute time limit.
- d. The speech score will be added in the total points for the contest.
- e. Each contestant will do an impromptu commercial for one of the live auction items. Contestants will do a blind draw for the item, have 1 min to prepare and then present a 30 second commercial about the item and the business sponsor. The commercial score will then be added in the total points for Speech score.

5. INTERVIEWS

- a. Personal and Horsemanship interviews will each be 12 minutes in length.
- b. Each contestant will be interviewed individually and privately by the judges and may be interviewed on many categories.
- c. Judges' questions will test the contestant's knowledge of the pageant, professional rodeo, horsemanship, and current affairs. Other interview topics could include knowledge of tack, horse care, feeding, diseases, anatomy, knowledge of pro rodeo, its history, terminology, organization, championship standings, standard events and what's current in the pro rodeo world. Excellent sources of information are the Pro Rodeo Sports News, the Official PRCA Rulebook, the PRCA website and the official Pro Rodeo Media Guide, all of which are available from the PRCA office, 101 Pro Rodeo Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80919.
- d. During the individual interviews, answers should be in-depth so that the judges may determine the character and knowledge of each contestant.
- e. Social Media interviews: each contestant will be interviewed individually on a live Facebook feed. Contestants will answer extemporaneous questions, which will require the contestant to think on her feet and to show maturity, intelligence, wisdom and imagination.
- f. Refer to the scoring matrix for maximum points assigned to each category.

6. IMPROMPTU QUESTIONS

- a. Impromptu questions will be asked of each contestant during various pageant functions.
- b. These scores will become part of the overall personality score.
- c. Questions may relate to the sport of professional rodeo, current events, agriculture, and/or a personality-type question.

7. PHOTOGENIC

- a. A photography event will take place at the pageant, which will carry a score of 35 points. These points will count toward the total score.

 The winner of each category of competition will be announced at coronation.

AUDITORS

At the end of each round, each judge will place their score sheet in a manila envelope, seal it and sign his or her name across the flap. The judges will then turn their envelopes in to the National Director or the Pageant Chairperson. This person will deliver the sealed envelopes to the auditor, who will then compile the scores in private.

When the judging has been completed, the auditor will determine which contestant has scored the highest in each division. The highest grand total score will be Miss Rodeo Nebraska. Second highest total will be first runner-up.

The original judges' score sheets, along with a notarized tally sheet, will be officially filed with the National Director. Score sheet comments only (no points) will be sent to individual contestants upon the contestant's request following the pageant. Requests must be made within 30 days following the pageant.
